SENIOR SPIRIT DAY!

enior spirit day along with a pep rally is a tradition at Abington for a while. Every year before the Thanksgiving Day football game against Whitman-Hanson, Abington has a pep rally to get the football team and students pumped up for the game. Since it takes place at the end of the fall sports season all the senior captains talk about their season. There's a performance by the cheerleaders, games and at the end of the festivities the football coach gives a speech that gets everyone ready for the game.

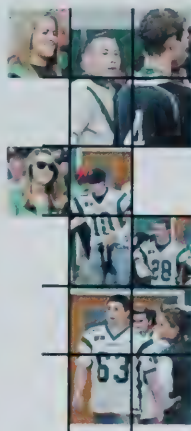

SENIOR SP

The gym was full of cheering seniors who have waited four years to be the ones who get to have all eyes on them. Everyone in the class of 2011 was having a blast. The day was full of fun and games and ended with the spotlight on them. Dressed in green the seniors were happy that the day was finally here.

SENIOR POETRY

"Ear-Chin-Ear BEARD"

By Nick Buckley

Freshman year started clean and flew by so fast,
It's almost over now, seems it didn't last.
What happened is becoming memories of the past,
Now that it's all gone, did we have a blast?

Met so many people, made so many friends,
It's sad that only some of them will remain until the end.
My years started off clean with nothing much of 'beard',
Then it went full out, now it's just all weird.

First year clean, smooth, long wavy hair,
Second, bushy, messy, goatee craziness,
Third, soul-patch, goatee, sideburns, 'stache,
Then, mustache, patch and twins to end this.

Now I reminisce with the end so nigh,
And I find, as it has grown, so have I.

Reminisce By Rob Carroll

Thinking back on these four years,
Many good times and some shed tears,
Most of the memories are only a blur,
Reminisce and don't forget who we were,
At first we didn't know who we'd become,
Just live and forgive, and try to have fun,
No regrets, but if I could do it again,
I would use my wisdom that I didn't have then,
To cherish the moments that went by too fast,
So that I always remember the things in my past

"Seniors" By Adam Campbell

My time is up and it has come for me to go
For the rest of the duration what do I have to show

You are my friends
Who I hold quite dear
The paper's wrote
our greatest fears

Numbers, words and so much information
Now unsure of my destination

These past years spent with all of you were great

But now it is time for us to decide our own fate

It's My Time By Liz Kalaijian

Years and years pass by in the blink of an eye
I had never realized what it all meant
To this day I wonder about my memories
I think to myself, maybe I wasted my time?
I can't really tell you what I've learned

But I can tell you who I've met
And the friendships that I've built School isn't just about education; it's about becoming who you are

The way I think of it, you'll never really know who you are
But the time we were given must have been enough Because like it or not, we're moving on
There are so many dreams I have wanted to pursue for so long
Maybe now I can make them happen

This is not the end
Ambition is the key
I will not give up
I'll just wait for it all to erupt
This is my time

New Beginnings
By Pamela Woods

Freshman year, full of fear
A new beginning, a breath of fresh air
Friendships bloom and stay strong
Time passes by, feels short not long

Sophomore year, in the clear
Growing more confident, MCAS is here
Focus on school, nothing special
Just get through the year, try to make it memorable

Junior year, exciting to hear
Looking forward to prom this year
Keep friends close, hearts may be broken
Also time for SAT's to be taken

Senior year, the end is near
So much to do it's hard to bear
Applications must be filled out
Graduation is coming about

These years will pass by quicker than you think
You may not want to spare time to blink
Stay organized and make a plan
To live every moment to the fullest you can.

Dead and Gone
By Alex Morris

All the years are dead and gone
But in our memories they will always be alive.
From the time we should have won
To the first day of our preschool lives

All the years have been good and bad
From acing a test
To remembering those we wish we had Different thoughts stand out from the rest

Like the football days which were the best of times
Which we played for all four years
We've created bonds for the end of time
The last time in the locker room, I shed some tears

Getting past those nuts and bolts
Leaving these days is as bitter as a lime
It's not like our lives are coming to a halt
But our childhood's ending, like a rhyme

I Go Back
By Ben Pignone

Looking back at everything that happened.
It's amazing how we all turned out.
High school may be coming to an end.
But the bonds we made will never die.

Moving on with our lives,
Everyone's future will be different.
Everyone's life will change.
Live out these moments while you still can.

One day the class will move on.
One day we will all look back.
Reuniting with lost friends,
We'll go back to relive the past.

School days
Jennifer Goyuk

It is coming to an end
I am almost around the bend
I have made it this far
Even though I may not have not been a star
But I think my moon is starting to rise
I can see it in my mind's eye
Friendships have faded along the way
Although I know some friendships will stay way beyond May Erin and Mary: childhood friends through thick and thin Remember the three of us and the costume contest prize we did win?

ECC, Woodsdale, and the Frolio are all part of my past
But the memories of my early school years will forever last Embarking on a new chapter in my life story
I am hoping it is filled with glory
Graduation is almost near Caps will be thrown in the air
Now that I am on a bold new journey, my dream's much clearer Abington High School will soon be in the rear view MIRROR!
